

Morning Munchies with Grandparents

On Thursday morning, December 7th, E. L. Ross opened its cafeteria for students and grandparents to enjoy a hot breakfast and coffee together. They shopped in the book fair, ate breakfast, and visited with one another before the school day even started. We are thankful for our grandparents and their support!

Family Christmas Night

On Tuesday, December 5th, Ross students and families enjoyed a Christmas concert by the E. L. Ross Chorus as well as ornament making stations in the cafeteria. The book fair was open for families to browse and shop as well. Everyone enjoyed a fun evening, retreating from the cold and rain outside!
